Description:

Humans are natural born learners and creative thinkers. Learning environments need to be inspiring spaces that support the diversity of learners and a multitude of learning scenarios. The first step is to dump the classroom. In this book, Rosan Bosch introduces her progressive design concepts for physical learning spaces: Mountain Top, Cave, Campfire, Watering Hole, Hands-on, and Movement. Rosan Bosch is the Founder of Rosan Bosch Studio and internationally renowned for her thought-provoking designs and innovative perspectives on how schools can sustain children as creative thinkers.

I purchased this book after seeing the author on a television show in Spain. I'm into classroom design (I'm a teacher), and constantly looking for ideas on how to improve my classroom design to engage my students. I liked the book, but it isn't something that I would recommend to a friend to purchase. The quality and binding are nice. The pictures are nice. I wish it were more substantial with the text and had more examples than what was inside for the price. It's a good starting point for ideas on school/classroom design.
